DOGS ON TRIAL PERIOD

Mattapoisett Selectmen have announced that Mattapoisett will be given a trial period from May 1 through June 1 for dogs and dog owners. They state, "The responsibility which the dog owners assume during this period will determine future action which may or may not be imposed". Selectmen invite letters of comment on this matter.

Mr. August Lopes has presented a petition containing several signatures advocating the restraining order on dogs. Mrs. John D. Gibbons has written a letter in favor of a restraining order on dogs.

WOMAN'S CLUB GUEST NIGHT OBSERVED

A brother and sister, Lillian and Alfred Lee, singer and concert pianist, presented a concert of music and song to the members and guests of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club as the club observed guest night this past Thursday evening in the Congregational Parish Hall.

The Lees presented a varied repertoire and delighted their audience with their musical artistry.

Miss Lee was lovely, dressed in a brilliant red oriental gown.

Selections sung by Miss Lee were: Tonight from West Side Story, Bernstein; French Medley, Do Re Mi from The Sound of Music, Rodgers and Hammerstein; Bell Song, Larkin (Delibes); Folk Songs, done in English, French and

BAND CONCERTS AHEAD

Conductor John Pandolfi leads the Mattapoisett Band in the first of many rehearsals of the Spring. This aggregation, which furnished the town with its best entertainment of the Summer, devotes long hours to the perfection of its programs which are so much a part of the pleasure of that season. The recent Lions Club proposal to build a proper bandstand for our band is a fine idea. The proposal has been delayed while the new Lions administration takes over, but when activated it is sure to have the wholehearted support of all of the people of the town.

These dedicated musicians play in the band because they love to make music. Most are

WOMAN'S CLUB ANNUAL MEETING

The annual luncheon and meeting of the Sippican Woman's Club was held at the Colonial Coach with Mrs. John L. MacNeil presiding. The treasurer's report was submitted by Mrs. Richard Steigerwald, and secretary's report by Mrs. Harold Younghans. Mrs. D. S. Other reports were by Mrs. James Babbitt, Jr., who told of her work with the art department at Regional High; Mrs. Howard Steff, membership chairman, who read the resignation of Mrs. Jame Hitchcock.

Mrs. Winston Bendall read the names of the new slate of officers for next year which had been the choice of the nominating committee. All were approved and voted unanimously as follows: Mrs. C. Joseph Nowak, president; Mrs. Kenneth T. Moore, vice-president; Mrs. Darrough S. Gurney, second vice-president; Mrs. Harold Younghans, recording secretary; Mrs. Howard Steff, treasurer; Mrs. James Babbitt, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. James Wickenden, a new director. Other directors of the club still in office are Mrs. E. Leslie Goodwin, Mrs. Howard Patterson, Mrs. Frank Babbitt, Mrs. John Hirschmann and Mrs. Edwin V. Babbitt.

ARTISTS IN HOME TALENT EXHIBIT

Two outstanding artists taking part in Marion Art Center's Home Talent Exhibit are Mrs. Walter Hellier and Mrs. Harvey Williams. Mrs. Hellier studied in New York at the Art Student League and continued her work at Marion Art Center with Frank McCoy, Anthony Busa, and Weston Andrews. Last summer she exhibited in Marion Art Center's Sidewalk Show.

Mrs. Williams attended the School of Fine Arts at Albright Knox Gallery in Buffalo. During the past twelve years she has studied under various Philadelphia artists including Martin Jackson, Morris Blocklaru, Phoebe Shi, and Samuel Maitin. She bases many of her oil paintings on sketches done while traveling and completed later in her studio. She enjoys all mediums, but finds watercolor easiest for on-the-spot work.

Marion Art Center's current exhibit, devoted exclusively to Marion artists, is open to the public during gallery hours, and will remain until May 26th.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE ON PEACE CORPS

An illustrated lecture concerning the Peace Corps will be given by Mrs. William G. Saltonstall at Marion Art Center auditorium Friday, May 6th, at 8 P.M.

Mrs. Saltonstall and her husband who are well known Marion residents formerly directed Peace Corps activities in Nigeria from August, 1963, to June, 1965. Stationed in one of the four regional capitals, they worked closely with the Ministry of Education to serve this country's needs.

However, it is not on Nigeria that Mrs. Saltonstall will base her remarks, but rather on what the Peace Corps offers to those interested in joining its service, what volunteers may be called upon to do, what requirements they need for enrollment, and the nature of the training they will receive. At the conclusion of her talk she will exhibit samples of arts and crafts acquired

CAPEWAY LITTLE LEAGUE IN SPRING TRAINING

The Capeway Little League Baseball teams are now in spring training. Training consists of drills, practices, exhibition games, and the general rules of good health, exercise and good food; and early to bed and early to rise. These are the order of the day.

In Rochester: The Royals, last year's champions, are hard at work preparing for the coming season's opening day, and defense of their title. Workouts are continuing at Rochester's Raynor Gifford field.,

In Marion: The Eagles and the Cubs are practicing, drilling and molding teams for the assault on the Royals and others, so that the championship may once again return to Marion, after several years absence.

In Mattapoisett: The Blues, Reds and Greens are in their exhibition stage of training. The Blues hosted the Brock Avenue Pharmacy Little League Team of New Bedford last Saturday and defeated them 7 to 0. After being denied for several years, they are possibly a definite threat, and the Blues hope to abscond with the Walldon "Warpie" Doane Memorial Trophy.

The Reds met the Verdean Vets Tuesday, but the results were not known at press time. As the Reds are not in contention for league honors, they could be the spoilers.

The Greens met the Mickiewicz Club of Greater New Bedford and were treated rudely to the tune of 16 to 0.

After this humiliation, they have found new determination and dedication, and who knows what may happen.

This season could be the most hard fought and should be the most interesting in the history of Capeway Little League baseballers. Any team can win. The committee advises the fans

RAT SHOOTING AT DUMP

Mattapoisett Police Chief Alden Kinney is advocating that the town adopt rules regulating shooting at the town dump. He states that a firearms permit is necessary and that regulations on such permit must now be observed. Sunday shooting is prohibited. Shooting is confined to the hours between 9 A.M. to 8:30 P.M. on other days. No shooting will be allowed while cars are dumping rubbish. Chief Kinney will recommend that shooting be limited to short 22 cal. ammunition - leaving this to the discretion of the Selectmen.

Both Mr. Gary McBride, manager, and Mr. Brad Barrows, reported their satisfaction with the team's progress at this stage of training.

They stated that some spots need more polish and will develop by the opening date, May 15. The 5 to 0 victory was marred by the injury to Michael Quinn of Mattapoisett.

Coaches McBride and Barrows, although bemoaning the loss of Quinn's services for three weeks, expressed gratification that the boy's

CONTESTANTS FOR MISS WAREHAM PAGEANT

The Miss Wareham Scholarship Pageant is in effect saluting the girls of Wareham High School this year as many of the contestants are either graduates of or attending school there. The following group of contestants are all seniors at Wareham.

The first is Miss Sandra Eileen Morse, daughter of Mrs. Norma Elizabeth Morse, Oak Terrace, Wareham. Three years in the church choir, a member of the school Glee Club, and a member of the Madrigal Choir could add up to only one thing. Sandra will be singing in this Pageant. Mr. Preduzzi, music director at Wareham High School, has aided Sandra in selecting the music and training her for the Pageant. Stage fright is certainly one problem Sandra will not have to face. She had one of the lead parts in the Senior play, "The Skin of our Teeth".

If Sandra should win a scholarship in the Pageant she says she will use it for her schooling either at Cape Cod Community College or Bridgewater State Teachers' College, where she plans to enter a liberal arts program and eventually become an English teacher.

Her hobbies include modern dancing, creative writing (she is a member of the Creative Writing Club in school), bowling and swimming. She is also a member of Future Teachers of America and the Congregational Youth Fellowship.

The next contestant is Miss Kathleen Mary Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Arnold Nelson, 83 Cranberry Highway, West Wareham. It looks as though the future teachers are coming out in force for this Pageant, because Kathy would also like to teach. Her preference, elementary school teaching. She has been accepted at Westfield College and if she wins a scholarship will use it for her schooling there.

Athletics are Kathy's "cup of tea". She is on the first string of the Girls' Varsity Basketball Team and since her sophomore year has been a member of the Student Leader Corp of which she is now the president. For those of you who are not familiar with the latter organization, these girls are responsible for assisting the gym instructor in class. She also participated in gymnastics in her sophomore and junior years. Kathy will be twirling a baton and demonstrat-

GRANGE MEETING

The Mattapoisett Grange will hold its bi-monthly meeting this Thursday night. A short program will be in charge of the young people, followed by a Maybasket social. The ladies are to bring lunch for 2 or 3. Coffee and punch will be provided.

The usual public whist party will be held this Thursday afternoon at 1:30. Come and enjoy a social afternoon of whist.

ing her gymnastic talents on Pageant night. Besides having taken baton twirling lessons she has also had plenty of practice as one of the Wareham High School majorettes.

She said she loves to read and that she is also on the business staff of the school newspaper. Other of her hobbies are cooking, swimming and water skiing.

The last contestant is Miss Dawn Jeannette Kennedy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kennedy, Sr. of Swift Lane, West Wareham. Dawn has probably seen more of the world than most of us will ever see. During the summer of 1965 she spent a week touring Israel and three weeks working in Greece. This tour was sponsored by the Congregational Church. However, this is not the last of Dawn's adventures. She has applied to enter the Peace Corps for two years upon graduation from high school; and that if she is accepted she will be going to El Salvador to work in occupational therapy. Dawn has had experience in this type of work as she spent two summers working in a cerebral palsy camp in Goshen, Mass. After leaving the Peace Corps, Dawn will enter either the University of Puerto Rico or a Junior College in California.
